ASSOCIATION

Post pandemic the West End is facing the greatest pressures to change in a generation. The following is at stake:-

the future use of the ground floor spaces, retail, restaurant or new entertainment uses;
the loss of heritage buildings in our conservation areas;
climate change and implications for demolition or refurbishment;
the use of our streets for commercial activity such as drinking and dining late into the night;
licensing and the cumulative impact of crime, noise and anti-social behaviour;
and the future of Oxford Street and the adjoining neighbourhoods.

As residents we have the most to lose if its done badly and most to gain if its done right.

At the centre of all this is Westminster City Council so now more than ever it's important that we are represented by people that understand the issues and who will speak up for us.

This is why the three amenity societies have joined up to invite you to meet the candidates and put your questions to them on 28 April. Please go to www.thesohosociety.org.uk to register for your free ticket, and for the link if you want to join the hustings remotely.
